Common Core in Prentice-Hall Literature for 7th and 8th grade students…

Literature opens minds. It should also open doors to a student's future. Prentice Hall Literature Common Core Edition is a comprehensive literacy program that teaches the new standards and helps students become better readers, better writers, and better thinkers so they're better prepared for college, tech schools, and careers into the 21st century.

At Libby Middle School, we have been able to obtain the newest in common core standards textbooks through our STRIVING READER'S grant.

We are very excited to announce the addition of SuccessNet to our educational curriculum here at Libby Middle School. SuccessNet offers you the opportunity to look inside your child's day-to-day learning. If your student forgets an assignment, just log in and print. Everything is online.

How to get started?

Success at school can be a shared learning experience. As a partner helping your child make the most of learn, SuccessNet offers the right tools for you and your child. It all begins with a simple login at the web site.

How to access the Web site:
1. Access your internet browser
2. Enter the URL (site address) – http://www.pearsonsuccessnet.com
3. Then, use the following information to get started in your students reading classroom.
   Your child's user name: 18lastnamefirstinitial   Example: 18SmithA
   Your child's password: l_ _ _ _ _ _   (the letter l and their 6 digit student I.D.
   Note: User name and password are case sensitive.
4. You should see the home page. Congratulations!

You will be amazed at how motivated and excited your child will be to share in the interactive learning experiences while studying at home. Watch as your child "teaches" you how to access the resources we utilize in the classroom.

Brenda Swanson and Katie Nelson
P.S. If you ever run into technical difficulties, there is a Pearson SuccessNet online help connection to serve you. You can reach them at http://support.pearsonschool.com